Prof. Johan Galtung

17,45 Debate

Prof. Johan Galtung

is a mathematician, sociologist, political scientist and the founder of the discipline of peace studies.

He founded the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo (1959), the world's first academic research center focused on peace studies, as well as the influential Journal of Peace Research (1964). More information on

The aim of the Workshop is to understand the contribution of interreligious dialogue to peacebuilding processes.

This event is the result of the collaboration among the Department of Political Sciences , the Degree Program in Science for Peace, University of Pisa, and the Association "Rondine - Cittadella della Pace"
